Chapter 12 (KJV)

Ecclesiastes 12

Remember now your Creator in the days of your youth, Before the difficult days come, And the years draw near when you say, "I have no pleasure in them": ²While the sun and the light, The moon and the stars, Are not darkened, And the clouds do not return after the rain; ³In the day when the keepers of the house tremble, And the strong men bow down; When the grinders cease because they are few, And those that look through the windows grow dim; ⁴When the doors are shut in the streets, And the sound of grinding is low; When one rises up at the sound of a bird, And all the daughters of music are brought low; ⁵Also they are afraid of height, And of terrors in the way; When the almond tree blossoms, The grasshopper is a burden, And desire fails. For man goes to his eternal home, And the mourners go about the streets. ⁶Remember your Creator before the silver cord is loosed, Or the golden bowl is broken, Or the pitcher shattered at the fountain, Or the wheel broken at the well. ⁷Then the dust will return to the earth as it was, And the spirit will return to God who gave it. ⁸"Vanity of vanities," says the Preacher, "All is vanity." ⁹And moreover, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yes, he pondered and sought out and set in order many proverbs. ¹⁰The Preacher sought to find acceptable words; and what was written was upright--words of truth. ¹¹The words of the wise are like goads, and the words of scholars are like well-driven nails, given by one Shepherd. ¹²And further, my son, be admonished by these. Of making many books there is no end, and much study is wearisome to the flesh. ¹³Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God and keep His commandments, For this is man's all. ¹⁴For God will bring every work into judgment, Including every secret thing, Whether good or evil.

A vivid word picture of old age....

The preacher in wisdom wants most to impart this to YOUTH. For youth is the time of learning and to be set in direction so something more than is merely vanity.

Wisdom is knowing that when all vanity is removed, there is God.
